PHILOSOPHY—This is an intense skills building program, teaching ball handling and the art of single-handed ball control. Instruction includes ball handling drills, moves off the dribble, quick handling and explosive moves and challenging competition.

STAFF—COACH BILLY CLAPPER

A former college player at Youngstown State University who has been devoted to sharing his message of hard work and determination. Those two traits were the building blocks that took him from being a high school role player to a Division I walk-on. He has spent nine years speaking, working, and directing at basketball camps in the Eastern United States. He began his coaching career as an Assistant Coach at Penn State University-Altoona. There he helped head coach Alan Seretti lay the foundation for the future. He then moved on to Indiana State University where he was a member of Coach Royce Waltman's coaching staff. The Sycamores went on to defeat three teams that advanced to the NCAA tournament: Butler, Creighton, and Purdue. He is currently an Assistant Men's Basketball Coach at the University of Pittsburgh-Johnstown. The Mountain cats are a member of the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. Billy has earned a reputation of being an excellent instructor of perimeter skills and guard play.

Billy will be assisted by other collegiate level coaches and players.
